July 28, 2005

Dear Members of the Campus Community:

I am delighted to announce the appointment of Madeleine Viljoen, Ph.D., to the position of Director and Head Curator of the La Salle Art Museum, effective August 1, 2005.

Madeleine came to La Salle University in January 2004, when she was named Assistant Curator of the Art Museum. She was promoted to Curator in June of the same year.

She received her undergraduate degree at the University of Cape Town and her Masters (1995) and Ph.D. (2000) in Art History from Princeton University. Prior to coming to La Salle, Madeleine had experience at the Metropolitan Museum, the Princeton Art Museum, the Philadelphia Museum of Art, and the Ackland Art Museum at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill.

In her time at the La Salle University Art Museum, she has been responsible for a number of shows, including "Women on Exhibit." Together with the Bucks County Chamber of Commerce, she also arranged the exhibition "Treasures from the La Salle University Museum of Art," which was on view at the Travis Gallery in Bucks County this spring.

Currently, she is working on a loan exhibition of Mexican retablos and is guest-curator for a show of prints, entitled the Early Modern Painter-Etcher, which opens next spring at the Arthur Ross Gallery at the University of Pennsylvania and travels to the Ringling Museum in Sarasota and to the Smith College Museum of Art.

Madeleine has published scholarly articles and reviews in a number of leading academic journals, including Print Quarterly, The Memoirs of the American Academy in Rome and CAA Reviews. Her catalogue for the exhibition on the Early Modern Painter-Etcher is to be published by Penn State University Press.

Please join me in congratulating Dr. Viljoen and wishing her well.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Nigro

From the Campus Store

Fellow Colleagues,

I just wanted to send out a short message to introduce myself and let everyone know how excited I am to be a part of the La Salle community. My name is Joyce McMurray and I am the new Barnes & Nobel Manager of the Campus Store. I have met a few members of the faculty/staff and am excited to meet more of you as the upcoming fall semester approaches. Should you need anything from the Campus Store, or have any questions or concerns, please feel free to drop by or call at ext. 1395.

I would also like to thank those of you that I have already met, for welcoming me so kindly. Again, I am very excited to work with all of you at La Salle University.

Procedures for Submitting Items for Inclusion in the Campus News

All information must be submitted electronically as text by selecting a web form located in the Campus News channel in the mylasalle portal (located in the Staff Services Tab).

- Accompanying graphics may be submitted separately in the following manner:
 - via e-mail to the campusnews@lasalle.edu. The article title must be included in the subject line of the e-mail.
 - via floppy disk or CD
 - will be limited to one per article, unless a specific need for additional graphics is articulated. (EX: If La Salle and another organization partner for an event, the logos of both La Salle and the partnering organization would certainly be permissible.)
- PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING: Graphics submitted may be resized to fit the document layout. Logos, signatures, and other graphics that are likely to be used frequently can be kept on file for future use. Please add a comment to this effect when you submit your graphic.

If you have any questions or need assistance...

We realize that the community is being asked to work a bit differently in terms of submitting articles to be included in the Campus News.

By supplying standard web forms for your use, we are attempting to create efficient processes that will make it easier for you to submit articles. For example, employment postings will be automatically routed to the appropriate individuals in Human Resources for review prior to being sent to the Campus News.

If you need assistance with submissions, please contact Jim Sell at 215-991-3615 or jsell@lasalle.edu
